

SOCIAL EVENTS

CIRCLE PLANS MUCH CHARITY WORK.

At the monthly meeting of the Silver Cross circle of King's Daughters, held yesterday afternoon in the home of Mrs. Lowry M. Casteel, 1124 Twenty-second street, much charity work was planned for the coming year. The circle agreed to pay $5 a month for three months to the Visiting Nurse association, contributed $10 towards the Associated Charities, and $5 to each of two worthy families who need assistance. From the proceeds from the sale of tickets to a day's performance at the Spencer Square theatre previous to the holidays, the circle realized $65.32 as its share. The members are delighted with the result of this effort on their part and are loud in their praise of the treatment accorded them by the managers of the theatre that offered the use of the theatre for the day. During a time of sociability Mrs. Casteel served lunch. The February session will be in the home of Mrs. Frank North.

J. H. Hauberg, with the assistance of the Boy Scouts, will tell of Indian life in Rock Island county at an entertainment to be given Tuesday evening, Jan. 18 at the Oak Grove Presbyterian church, Twenty-fourth street and Nineteenth avenue. The lecture deals especially with the Sax and Fox Indians and the story is illustrated with more than a hundred beautiful views, many of which Mr. Hauberg has himself taken. The drum corps will give selections and will imitate Indian dances which they saw when on a hike to Tama, Iowa, last summer, when they visited the Indian reservation there located.

A largely attended meeting of the Ladies' Aid society of the United Presbyterian church was held yesterday in the home of Mrs. W. L. Aster, 413 Second street. The ladies had taken their work which occupied their attention and they enjoyed a social time, the hostess serving refreshments at the afternoon's close.

GRANT PARENT-TEACHER ASSOCIATION.

The Grant Parent-Teacher association held its January meeting yesterday afternoon at the school. Songs and memory poems from the regular school work were given by the upper grades. The program was as follows: "Shepherd Song"—Miss Quaintance's pupils.

Recitation, "Barbara Frietchie"—Miss Pleasant's pupils. "Freedom's Song"—Miss Resser's pupils.

Song, "Mine Be a Cat"—Miss Norton's pupils.

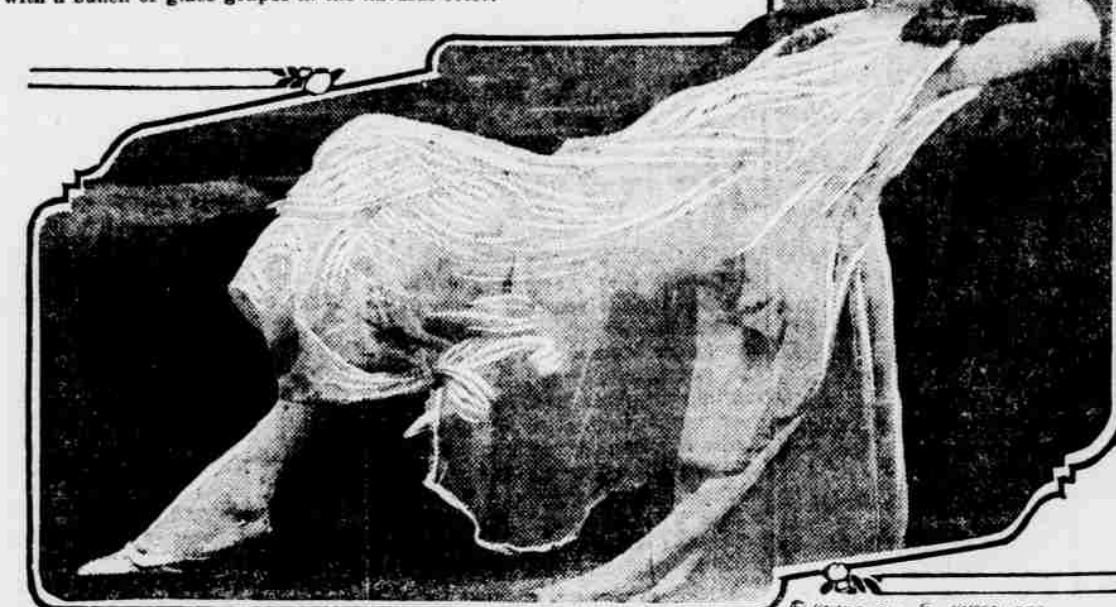

Mrs. R. C. Beck, the chairman, was unable to be present on account of illness, and Mrs. A. S. Fox, the vice chairman, presided. The attendance was 37. Two new names were added to the membership. From a list of subjects suggested it was decided to discuss the "Relation of a Child's Physical Condition to His Conduct and School Work" at the next meeting, which will be held Friday, Feb. 25. Two of the members donated a dozen cups. A committee was then appointed to purchase enough more to meet the needs of the association. Nominees Selected for Club Civic Department

Mrs. F. O. Van Galder was named by the nominating committee as nominee for the position of chairman of the civic department of the Rock Island Woman's club at the January meeting held yesterday in the Masonic temple parlors. Other officers nominated are:

Vice chairman—Mrs. Allan D. Welch. Secretary—Mrs. N. P. Tucker. Treasurer—Mrs. John W. Tremann. Registrar—Mrs. W. M. Beal.

Doorkeeper—Mrs. Ralph Haverstick. Directors—Messdames Mayer Levi, E. M. Sala and C. K. Mixer.

Upon the motion of Mrs. H. A. Weld the department elected by informal ballot a committee of five from the department who shall prepare a membership ticket to be presented and voted upon at the same time as the ticket selected by the nominating committee, this annual election to be the business of the February session. As such a committee the following were chosen: Messdames C. A. Hoge, Mattie Williams, C. L. Silvis, H. A. Weld and C. D. McLane.

The department believes that it is expedient to place two tickets in nomination for officers and it was the feeling in the department that the membership ticket could best be made out by a committee chosen from the department as a whole by informal ballot. Each member of the department suggested five names for the nominating membership ticket committee and the five highest were selected with the elimination of those who refused to serve. Messdames Frank Brough, Mattie Williams, H. A. Weld and C. L. Silvis were named tellers of the vote.

The meeting yesterday was a reciprocity program, civic departments of the Davenport, Moline, East Moline and Silvis Women's clubs having been invited to participate in the program.

Mrs. W. H. Snider, representing the Davenport department, spoke on the organization that she represents. She gave a clear and well prepared talk on the work that has been done, speaking at some length on the smoke nuisance, which has been the chief problem of the Davenport department for some months past. She went into detail in explaining the economic loss occasioned by smoke, of the damage it does to buildings, furnishings, books, the health of the community, etc., giving figures to prove that smoke is a real nuisance and that some steps should be taken to provide an adequate law governing it. She also spoke of the fly campaign that the department is carrying on, speaking especially of the preventive measures that should and are being adopted. She spoke likewise of the benefits of reciprocity meetings between women's clubs and the exchange of ideas and means of accomplishing things.

Mrs. John McEniry, who was to have represented the Moline department, was prevented by illness from attending the meeting and her department was not officially represented.

Mrs. E. H. Anselme of East Moline read an excellently prepared paper on "Woman's Place in Civic Work," giving in carefully prepared detail the real things that women have accomplished since the first woman's club was organized. She had many good suggestions for work among women to best accomplish results and her paper was one of real worth, bringing out the fact the living is, after all, the best and biggest thing in life.

Mrs. Harry Hill, representing the Silvis Women's club spoke informally on what has been done and can be done for children. She told of the work in the club she represents, of the playgrounds that have been established, of the charity work in the care of worthy mothers, of the making of a skating pond, and many other things that help the child to live a right life.

Mrs. W. H. Whisler, chairman of the billboards committee, reported what has been attempted in the matter of regulation of the placing of billboards and asked the cooperation of the Davenport and Moline departments to better bring about actual results. The next reciprocity meeting of the five cities will be held in Davenport Feb. 7.

HEART and HOME PROBLEMS

MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) Will you please tell me how to keep my hair light?

(2) I am a married woman, but I did not marry my first sweetheart. He is married now. One evening we met and he made me acquainted with his wife and she promised to call on me, but she never did. When she is with him she never speaks to me. He speaks if he is not with her. Would you advise me to quit speaking to both of them? I do not want to make trouble for anyone, because I have a home of my own. I attend strictly to my own business.

(1) A cleansing mixture adapted to light hair, that brightens without dyeing, is made from equal parts of dried rhubarb and strained honey, steeped for 24 hours in three parts of white wine. At the end of that period the mixture, which should have been tightly covered, must be strained, and the head and long hair entirely covered with it. The preparation should stay on for at least half an hour, and until dry. It then must be washed off in clear water with a little bicarbonate of soda in the final rinse.

Oils are likely to have a darkening effect upon really light hair, and should be eliminated from all applications.

(2) Let them speak to you first.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: Please tell me how I can make a girl understand I care nothing about her without being impolite? I don't care for her, as she is both lazy and homely, and I like pretty girls. The others all make fun of me because they notice how she chases me from early in the morning and every time I am in the house. I am thinking of leaving this place, but will wait until I hear from you. Two of my boy friends told me to ask you.

X. Y. M. A.
Perhaps you are the kind of man who will be forever pursued by women. If this is the case, in order to better conditions, find a place to live where there are only men boarders and where the landlady has no daughters. A change of boarding place, as far as I can see, is your only escape. Your friends better not laugh at you. At any time they may fall victim to some girl, too.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) I am 13 years old. Am I too young to wear a suit? If not, how long should it be, and what color?

(2) I weigh 144 pounds. Do you think I would look too big in a sweater?

(3) Do you think it is all right for girls between 13 and 16 years of age to go to a skating party from 7:30 a. m. to 11 a. m.?

LIGHT HAIR.

(1) A small girl of 13 looks rather young to wear a suit, while a medium sized or large girl of that age looks all right in one. Blue and brown are pretty colors. It should be about eight or ten inches from the floor.

(2) It depends upon your height and the weight of the sweater. You yourself ought to be able to decide whether it makes you look larger.

(3) Yes.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1) When a boy calls on me and is leaving is it right to help him on with his overcoat?

(2) After being seated at a table and a stranger comes in and you are given an introduction, is it proper to rise or to remain seated?

(3) How often should an engaged couple be together?

BRIGHT EYES.

(1) You should let him put it on alone.

(2) Rise if it is a woman older than yourself. Remain seated if it is a man or some one your own age.

(3) The engaged couple themselves should decide how often they think it best to be together. It depends upon their temperament and the circumstances.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

THE TABLE.

Mushroom Loaf—One can mushrooms, one can peas, two cups salad, cracker crumbs, one tablespoon butter cream to moisten well, one-half cup celery. Mix all ingredients. Season with salt and pepper. Bake 20 minutes. Baste with cream or milk. A little grated cheese is good sprinkled on top and allowed to melt.

Potato Biscuit—Sift one cup flour, one-half teaspoon salt, one and one-half teaspoons of baking powder, rub in one and one-half tablespoons of butter or lard, add one cup mashed potato, one cup milk. Roll rather thin, cut out, and bake in quick oven.

Spanish Rice—One cup cold boiled rice, lump of butter, salt, cayenne and small piece of onion for flavoring. Put in baking dish. Pour over this a cup of stewed tomatoes or thickened tomato soup. Sprinkle thickly with cracker crumbs and bake 20 minutes.

Creamed Chicken—Make a white sauce as follows: Mix one tablespoon of butter and flour in saucepan over fire. When mixed add one-half teaspoon salt, one-fourth teaspoon white pepper and one cup hot milk. Stir until thickened. Add leftover chicken, diced, and simmer 10 minutes.

Raisin Sauce for Steamed Fruitcake—One cup brown sugar, one-half cup water, one-fourth cup butter, few drops vanilla. Thicken with cornstarch, and when done add one-half cup seeded raisins.

Lentil Soup—Soak over night a cupful of lentils; next morning drain, put in a stewpan with a quart of water, one onion, one carrot, bunch of soup herbs and crust of stale bread. Turn gas very low and simmer for three hours. When cooked soft remove the soup herbs and rub the remainder through a sieve. Return to the fire with a cup of boiling water; season with salt and a dash of paprika. Lentils are in themselves so nourishing that meat stock is not needed.

Chestnut and Cream Charlotte—Boil, shell and skin the large Italian chestnuts; while they are hot mash or run through a potato ricer, the quantity being one pint; sweeten slightly; mound in the center of a glass dish; place it where it will become chilled, and just before serving heap sweetened whipped cream around it.

Spice Cake (without eggs or butter)—One cup of brown sugar, one cup of sour cream, two cups of flour, one cup of seeded raisins, one level teaspoonful of soda, one-half teaspoonful of nutmeg, one-half teaspoonful of cinnamon and one-fourth teaspoonful of cloves.

Cabbage Salad (New)—Two cupfuls of raw cabbage; two tablespoonfuls chives; one fresh red pepper; (or one canned pimiento); and a few ripe olives. Chop separately, mix and serve with a French dressing.

Pot au Feu—Use scraps of roast, oxtail, chicken—almost any kind of meat scraps. Put in olives or Aragon oil and dish of tarragon; put in onions and carrots or any vegetable left over from dinner. This is a French soup. Nothing is wasted. Set on stove, keep it simmering for an hour or more. Serve hot with crackers.

Tenderloins With Dressing—Two pounds pork tenderloins; well seasoned dressing prepared as for chicken or turkey. Split each tenderloin lengthwise and flatten out. Spread generous layer of dressing on one flattened tenderloin, lay a second one over it and tie the two (with the dressing between) together with twine. When all are prepared, place in roaster with water to partially cover, season with salt and pepper and roast 1½ hours. They are very good and there is no waste. This quantity will serve six or seven persons.

Pineapple Marshmallow Cream—Half pint whipped cream; when cream begins to thicken add white of one well-beaten egg and a tablespoon of sugar. Beat some more. Cut five large marshmallows or 10 small ones in pieces, fold into the cream and egg, let stand in a cool place two or three hours. Just before serving add three large slices of pineapple (or four small ones) cut in small pieces (no juice of pineapple). Use balance of pineapple and juice for tapioca pudding.
